ginia-Norfolk Baseball League here to-night. The meeting began at 8 o'clock and it was near midnight when the fact that something had been done he is also treasurer. Sherwood Higgs was elected vice-president.

port News-Hampton were represented.

the admission of the North Carolina

Smith, of Norfolk, and was adopted.
Other business afterwards transacted, it was stated, would not be made public.

GOOD NEWS, SAYS MR. WILLIAMS

Pleased With the Peace, of Course.

Purchase of the M. & O.

"It is good news, indeed," said President John S. Williams, of the Seaboard Air Line, when congratulated by a Times writer last night upon the termination of the fight which Mr. Thomas F.
Ryan has been making against the Seaboard for several years. "I am glad the whole matter is adjusted at last and upon terms so favorable to the Seaboard Air Line.""No, I didn't buy another railroad while I was away," said Mr. Williams, smilingly responding to a question from the reporter. "I see you newspaper men sent out the report that I was negotiating for one while in New York." Mr. Williams returned from New York last night.The news that the Southern had finally acquired control of the Mobile and Ohio beyond all question was much discussed in railroad circles yesterday.
The road was acquired by the Southern some time ago, but the Railroad Commission of Mississippi blocked the deal for a time, it being contended that the acquisition of the road by the Southern violated a State law. But on yesterday the commission passed a resolution dismissing all proceedings in the case.The Mobile and Ohio Railroad consists of a line from St. Louis to Mobile, 619 miles in length, and a branch line from Artesia, Miss., to Montgomery, Ala., 131 miles in length.The Southern reaches the Mississippi river with three due east and west lines—the first at St. Louis, the second at Memphis, and the third at Greenville. A fourth line from the East goes as far west as Meridian. From the North-east the Southern reaches, also, to Mobile.
These lines are like the spokes of a wheel with no rim to bind their extremities together, and such a rim will now be furnished by the Mobile and Ohio.The Mobile and Ohio traffic has shown a healthy growth. The gross earnings per mile were in 1899 $4,515, in 1900 $4,612, in 1901 $4,722, and in 1902 $4,845.
The Southern thus accounts for not only one of the oldest roads in the South, but one with established and growing business, from which, in connection with its previous system, it should, apparently, derive liberal profits.Mr. J. B. Munson, general agent of the Southern at New York City, is in Richmond. Mr. Munson was formerly with the Southern in this city, and has many friends here.The Chesapeake and Ohio passenger department is distributing attractive advertising matter regarding the famous route along the Chesapeake and Ohio system.Mr. L. W. Landman, Detroit, general traveling agent passenger department Hocking Valley, is in town.Mr. Allen Hull, Columbus, division passenger agent Norfolk and Western, is a visiting railroad-man.The Chesapeake and Ohio ran a special train of five cars from Newport News to Richmond, bringing the Bostonians from Norfolk to this city. The special left Newport News at 10:30 yesterday and arrived here shortly afternoon.Mr. G. D. Folsom, Cleveland, traveling car agent Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, was at the Chesapeake and Ohio general offices yesterday.C. F. Seegar, Philadelphia, general agent Northern Pacific, is a Richmond visitor.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Bostonians presented their new opera, "The Viceroy," at the Academy last night. Victor, the Viceroy, was a very much more score, but Harry B.
Smith was a poor librettist in this instance. There were some bright lines for Barnabe, but the plot was thin even for a comic opera. However, the music was pleasing and brilliant enough for the opera to score a success. W. H. McDonald's first song, ending with a waltz tempo, was the basis of the finales of the second and third acts, and few of the charming melodies have been written by an American composer. A quartette in the first can Mechanics decided this afternoon to meet next in Wilmington. State officers Washing Powdernet and a quintette in the second act were charming. McDonald's song, "Eyes of Black and Eyes of Blue," was warmly received, as was also a duet in the last act sung by Wentworth and Adele Rafter. The charm of the duet was intensified by the skill of the singers. Adele Rafter possessed an excellent contralto voice almost a mezzo-soprano, and her warm, mellow tones blended most charmingly with the rich and expressive voice of Miss Wentworth. Vernon Bates sang of Miss Wentworth. "Let Us Forget." He has a very sweet, but somewhat light, tenor voice. H. C. Barnabe was the Viceroy, as funny as ever and always a great favorite. McDonald sang in splendid voice and received much applause.

The opera was splendidly mounted. The settings and costumes were rich, and the augmented orchestra added largely to the pleasure of the evening.
Victor Herbert's opera, "The Serenade," will be presented at the matinee to-day, and the ever popular Robin Hood will be sung to-night.

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

My Daughter-in-Law will be the attraction at the Academy Saturday. The play was first produced in England, and scored a big success at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, last season. The cast is a strong one. Marion Convery, a prominent society belle, takes a leading part. Miss Nancy Brooks, who produced a New-Yorker's Night's Dream here for the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, is also in the cast. The play is a bright, crisp comedy.

STRONG BILL AT BLOU.

A better bill than that being presented at the Blou this week could not be found. Richmonders have never seen a better act than that presented by Staley and Birbeck, the transformationists. This act opens in a blacksmith shop, and in the twinkling of the eye it changes to a beautiful parlor. Mr. Staley, the inventor, is adding to the wonder of the act, and will introduce several bits of newness during the week. It requires nine stage hands to handle the scenery used in the transformation. "None" Winter, with the assistance of Banks Winter, are presented the best act they ever did here.
The juvenile star has improved wonderfully, and is modeling a great hit.
The Three Powers Brothers, the Remola Brothers, and others are all making good hits.A special matinee is scheduled for Friday, thus making matinees every day this week.
MEMBERS' COURSE TO-NIGHT.
The entertainment at the Association Hall to-night will be a delightful one. It is on the Members' Course, and the programme will be rendered by the Virginia Glee Club, composed of a number of Richmond's best vocalists; Mr. Richards, the basso of St. Paul's choir, and Harry Steele Morrison, the famous nineteen-year-old boy traveler, with his interesting story.
Morrison's record of travel and observation is a wonderful one, and his story is most fascinating. Seats are now on sale at the Association building.EDMUND JUCH TO-MORROW NIGHT.
The sale of reserved seats for the grand concert to be given by Mme. Edma Juch to-morrow night at the Association building is in a lively manner at the Association building yesterday afternoon. That the combination will be greeted by a splendid house is already demonstrated. According to the Association rules, four of the best rows of seats were reserved for cash sales. These seats are choice and can be secured at the Association building to-day.

duction.(By Associated Press.)

of $200,000 to pay soldiers' deposits.
The total reduction made by the committee is $1,529,000.

CAUSE HOPELESS.

The Acting-President of the Boers Admits This.(By Associated Press.) PRETORIA, Feb. 20.—Reports from Lydenburg say that Acting President Schalk-Burger, addressing a gathering of burghers, recently told them he now recognized that their cause was quite hopeless, and that a prolongation of hostilities was futile. Personally he added, he would not take it upon himself to advise a surrender, but he would say that, if surrender was inevitable, it was foolish to surrender in twos and threes, as the proper course was to come to a general agreement and surrender as a nation.

Capture by Boers.(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 20.—A special dispatch from Pretoria says the Boers to-day River, February 20, captured a train carrying General Kitchener's baggage.
The train was preceded by another on which the commander-in-chief was a passenger. An armored train drove off the Boers, but the latter secured the contents of the train derailed.

two persons and wounding many.

NEARING A CLOSE.

Trial of Kennedy for Murder Nearly Concluded.(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The trial of Dr.
Kennedy, charged with the murder of Dolly Reynolds, is nearly at an end.
Probably a verdict will be given to-morrow. That the people's case is weaker than it was two years ago, when Kennedy was convicted, is generally acknowledged. On the other hand, the defense is in a better position, and a strong alibi has been set up.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association began here to-day.
The President, S. H. Kuffman, of the Washington Star, presided.
The discussion to-day was mainly over an agreement for arbitration in labor disputes in offices of the members. It provides for a local board of arbitration, from which appeals may be taken to a National Board, pending which work is to be resumed.President Lynch, of the I. T. U., who was present, said that so far as he knew, all the local unions favored the agreement.

PRIZE MONEY.

Fifty Thousand Dollars Paid to United States Court.(By Associated Press.) SAVANNAH, GA., Feb. 20.—The United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia received to-day from the Atlas Steamship Company, of Kingston, Jamaica, a certified check for $50,000, the amount being prize money awarded to the British steamer Adula, of the Atlas Line, during the Spanish war.The Adula was captured by the Marblehead, Captain B. H. McCalla. She was released on bond and afterwards wrecked.
The prize award, however, was sustained, and the amount has now been paid into the registry of the court.

Smashers Accept Word of Mayor to Have Joins Closed.(By Associated Press.) WINFIELD, KAN., February 20.—Noon to-day was the time set by the crusaders for the jointists to close their offices or stores. The temperance people, however, accepted a report of Mayor Albright and a committee of business men that all had quit business and issued a statement that hostilities would cease until it could be seen whether the Mayor would keep the joints closed.
It is believed that serious trouble is thus avoided.

Charged With Murder, But Free.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Feb. 20.—James W.
Lindsay, charged with the murder of John Murray, a painter, was today admitted to bail by Judge Adams, of Campbell county, under a bond of $500. While there is strong evidence against Lindsay, he has, owing to the circumstances in the case, the sympathy of the people, and it is doubtful if he is ever indicted.

OF SMALL IMPORT.

British Have All the Horses and Mules
They Need.(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 20.—The action of the House of Representatives, at Washington, in passing a resolution to inquire into the question whether the United States has broken the treaty of 1817 by permitting the exportation of horses, mules and other supplies to the British forces in South Africa, created more academic interest than practical concern here.The War Office regarded the possible effects of any future action in the United States as being of small import, as about all the mules and horses required in South Africa had already been secured.
"Lord Cranborne, Under Secretary of State for the Foreign Office, to-day expressed the belief that the end of the war as an active campaign was now in sight, and that within a few months military operations in South Africa would assume that stage which for four years has marked the war in Burmah, which was itself out with adopting particular interest in Great Britain or elsewhere.

THE TARIFF WAR.

German Press Much Agitated Over the Threat.(By Associated Press.) BERLIN, Feb. 20.—The threat of a tariff war between Russia and the United States continues to occupy large newspaper attention. The conservative papers begin to use energetic language.
The Neueste Nachrichten expresses astonishment that M. DeWitte "interferes in German economic questions." It cites Bismarck's ejaculation, "We Germans fear God and no one else in the world."

NO BAIL FOR NATION.

Dishonor."(By Associated Press.)
TOPEKA, KAN., Feb. 20.—Judge Hazen, of the District Court to-day continued the case of Mrs. Carrie Nation, charged with smashing Murphy's joint until the April term of court. The cases against Eva Harding, Mrs. Rose Crist, Miss Madeline Southard, Mrs. C. C. Chadwick and C. R. McDowell, were also continued.
Mrs. Nation several times addressed

Miss Madeline Southard and Mrs. Crist
